Thank you so much to all those who came out to celebrate National Poetry Month with us! Joi Miner was superb!!! Her poetry beautiful!!! She gave an excellent discussion of her work and what drives her to write such masterful poetic works. I can tell that all who were present really enjoyed it.

Thank you to all those who submitted original poems for the poetry contest. The winners are; 1st place faculty/staff – Ken Scott for My Friend Time, 2nd place Mimi Johnson for August Moon, 1st place student – Lataffney Means for The Day of Soul Searching, honorable mention goes to Ann Vernon for My Mother's Love. Please congratulate each of the winners as you see them. The poems will be on display in the Trenholm Campus library as soon as we can get them framed.

Sincerely,

All:

Please join us today, April 22, 2014, 12 noon, in the Trenholm Campus for our final Brown Bag Lunch Series for the year. April is National Poetry Month and what better to celebrate than with a poetry reading and discussion in the library. Our guest speaker for the event is Joi Miner, published poet and author, with 4 collections (Graffiti Gypsy, Fun House Mirrors, Socioanthropologicfeminisma, and Outrun The Night) and two CDs (Graffiti Gypsy and Esoteric). We will also announce the winners of the poetry contest and read the winning poems. Please join us for this very special day.

Sincerely,
